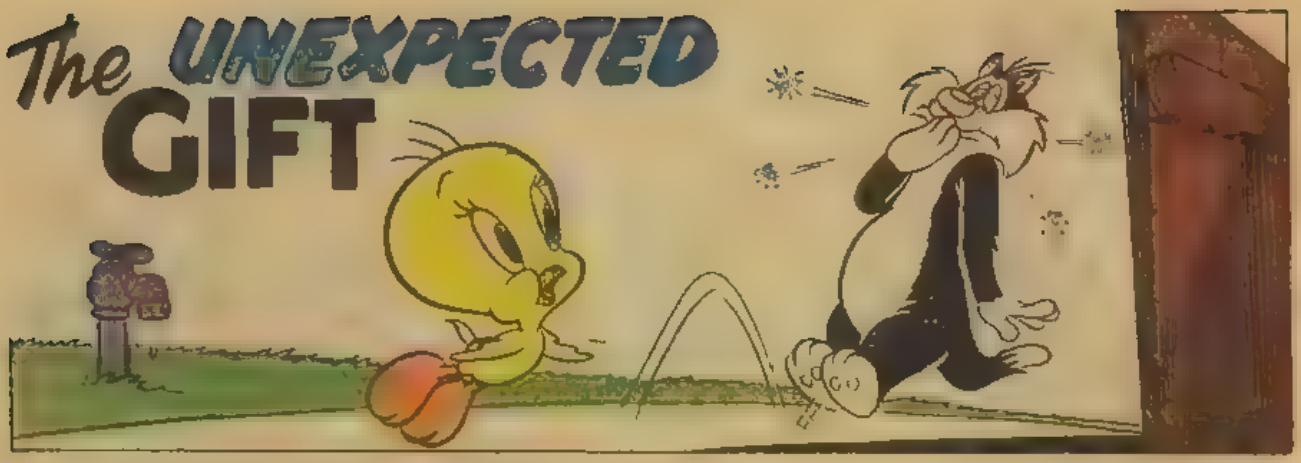
The UNEXPECTED GIFT



Sylvester quickly clutched his paw to his mouth. "Hiccup, hiccup!" he said, running again to the water faucet.

"My gwacious, puddy tat," Tweety chirped, "you won't have much fun at your birthday party unless you get wid of those awful hiccups."

"This is terrible," muttered Sylvester. "I've already tried all the cures I know. I've blown up bags, held my breath, and guzzled so much water that it's coming out of my ears."

"Don't let it upset you, puddy. I'm going to buy you a nice pwesent," said Tweety.

"A present! A real honest-to-goodness present," Sylvester shouted, brightening. "What kind of a present?"

"Any kind of pwesent you want," Tweety answered. "If I can possibly get it for you, I will."

"Say, that's swell. (Hiccup) You're a great guy, Tweety."

"What kind of pwesent would you like to have, puddy tat? A gallon of milk?"

"Hmmm. No."

"A can of sardines?"

"No."

"A back-scwatcher?"

"No."

"Well, what, then?"

"Something that'll get rid of these (hic) hiccups," Sylvester groaned.

"That's too bad, puddy. I'm afwaid I can't help you much there," Tweety said. "Isn't there something else you would like?"

Sylvester thought for a moment and then chuckled to himself. "Well," he said, "most cats enjoy catnip."

"Gee, do you mean that most puddy tats enjoy getting nipped?" Tweety asked innocently.

"Very funny. Very funny, my fine-feathered friend. Ha, ha. (Hic) All cats like to get nipped. Sakes!"

"Hmm," Tweety said to himself, "I'm afwaid Sylvester's hiccups have made him a little more cwazy than he alweady was."

Shaking his head dubiously, Tweety flew off. He returned in an hour with several boxes.

"Where's my present? Where's my present?" demanded Sylvester. "What's all this junk?"

"This is not junk, puddy," Tweety said angrily. "This is cake and candles and goodies for your birthday party. Your pwesent is still outside."

Sylvester leaped to the door and flung it open eagerly. "Oh, boy, oh, boy," he shouted.

With a loud "Grufff!" a big Saint Bernard bounded into the room and promptly began chasing Sylvester around the table.

"YEOW!" Sylvester yelped as he dodged. "What's the idea of getting me a dog, bird-brain?" he screeched. "He nipped me!"

"I know," answered Tweety. "I saw him. You said cats like to be nipped, didn't you?"

"You misunderstood me," Sylvester panted, leaping to the top of the bookcase. "Catnip is a plant that cats like to smell!"

"Doodness me," Tweety murmured. "What do you know about that? I'm vewy sowwy, puddy tat. I did so want to give you just what you wanted."

"Hey!" Sylvester shouted excitedly. "The hiccups are gone! No more of that hic, hic business. The dog must have scared them away. That's what I wanted most of all."

And Tweety and the puddy tat had a very enjoyable birthday together.

Imagine "Touring" FRANCE for only 10¢

YOU marvel at the Arch of Triumph. This monument marks an Unknown Soldier's grave.

YOU stroll along the magnificent Champs Elysees, and visit this charming sidewalk cafe.

YOU bask in the sun of the French Riviera, playground of celebrities and millionaires.

YOU visit the Louvre. Now a world-famous art museum, it once served as a palace of kings.

YOU view Pont Neuf, the most famous bridge in Paris for over 350 years.

THE AMERICAN GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY

invites you to accept this exciting "Tour" of France Plus A GIANT FULL-COLOR WALL MAP OF THE WORLD

A Combined $3.00 Value for only 10¢

To Introduce You and Your Family to A Wonderful New Way to Learn About . . .

Our Fascinating World

YES, just one dime takes you on a "magic carpet" tour of France. Without stirring from your home you will gaze down upon Paris from the Eiffel Tower . . . stroll through the palace of Fontainebleau . . . explore the glorious Louvre . . . linger on the beaches of the Riviera. You will get to know more about the people, art and culture of France than many tourists who actually visit there in person.

THE AMERICAN GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY makes this generous offer to acquaint you with an exciting way for young and old to learn about our wonderful world.

You "Visit" a Different Land Each Month

Each month you receive a set of color photographs and an informative illustrated guidebook album with spaces for mounting the color prints. By means of these prints and albums, you and your family "visit" a different country every month. You explore the country's famous landmarks and natural wonders. You go sightseeing in strange cities. In quaint little villages you observe native costumes, customs, and crafts. An expert on the region spins stories of the great battles, the national heroes, the ancient legends.

Here is a wonderful hobby for the whole family. It will give children a tremendous advantage not only in school, but in later life, as they grow up in a world where other countries are only a few hours away by air.

MAIL COUPON NOW with only 10¢ for the demonstration kit. No obligation. But if you are delighted and wish to continue, you pay only $1 for each month's "tour"; you may cancel at any time. AMERICAN GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY'S Around the World Program, Dept. 9-DG-2, Garden City, N. Y.

American Geographical Society's
Around the World Program
Dept. 9-DG-2, Garden City, N. Y.

I enclose ten cents. Please send me at once my introductory package consisting of (1) the informative "guidebook album" on France, (2) twenty-five beautiful full-color reproductions to mount in the album, and (3) the giant 3½ ft. wide full-color Map of the World.

After examining this package, I will decide whether or not I wish to continue. If not, I will simply let you know. If I do continue, you will send me a new "Around the World" album complete with a set of color prints each month for only $1 plus shipping. As I collect my albums you will send me free a handsome pull-drawer library case in which to store them. I am not obligated to take any minimum number of albums and I am free to resign at any time.
